MYJOKES.AI™

AI-COMEDY (AIC)

A COMEDY ESCAPE ROOM

The Great Joke Vault Escape

We host a video call on your PC, Mac or phone.

Then we start an experience with several virtual doors. Each one opens for a laugh — and you become a fun comedian.

Your host: AIC = Assisted Intelligent Comedy

escaperoom.myjokes.ai

From $9 per participant, $7.20 from four.

AIC opens the video call for you.

THE DOORS

Eleven doors. Then the key.

 Coat check	Three padlocks. Every clue is cut in half across your consoles.
 Green room	Write a funnier punchline than AIC's. The room votes for a favourite.
 Anagram lock	Five comedy words, shuffled. What one types, everyone sees.
 Caption this	A picture, no caption. Beat the AI's line.
 The goofy face	Pull your worst. The wall is sealed, then the room votes.
 Writers' room	A mini-sudoku and a quiz, filled together keystroke by keystroke.
 The mirror	Three comics, drawn and warped out of shape. Name them.
 Guess who	Those faces, 35 years older or 25 younger. Name them.
 Echo room	Three lines, words back to front. Put them right.
 The stage	45 seconds each. Stars from the room, a score from the judge.
 Tomato rain	Tomatoes fall, you duck. Your camera tracks your head — or use a mouse or finger.
 The key	Opens itself once the ranking is in. You are out.

2 versions of the experience: 7 doors, 45 minutes (no brain teasers) or 11 doors, up to 65 minutes.

YOUR HOST

AIC opens the call and runs the night from inside it.

AIC = Assisted Intelligent Comedy

He opens the video call himself and is there first, so nobody has to be admitted. His tile becomes the stage: he speaks the rules, the story, every door, the hints and the countdown.

2 screens, 2 fun surfaces

 The stage	What the whole call sees. The doors, the challenge, the wall, the clock.
 Your console	Private, one each. Your half of the clues, your answers, your camera and microphone.

AIC keeps the clock

- Hints are provided whenever you need one
- Warnings at five minutes and one minute left
- No worries: if the video call drops, we allow recovering it

The vault is played in English. More languages are on the way.

BOOKING

One organizer books. Everyone else just turns up.

Per participant	$9
Per participant, from four	$7.20
Pay for the experience yourself or for a group	your choice
Brain teasers, difficulty, team or solo	included

What you need

- The call link from your room — AIC opens the video call
- A PC/Mac or mobile phone each, with a browser
- Up to sixty-five minutes and somebody willing to pull a face

And at the end of the experience

A results page with the scores, the wall of shame and the 30-day podium. The winning face becomes a caricature for a mug, tee or cap in our shop — plus 20% off for a friend and 20% back for you.
